Pattern Joins Governor Cuomo to Celebrate Opening of New Tz Bridge

On a sunny August morning, Pattern staff joined more than 230 other dignitaries, including Governor Andrew M. Cuomo, for the official opening of the new $4 billion dollar replacement for the aging Tappan Zee Bridge. During the ceremony held at the center of the new spans, Governor Andrew Cuomo announced that the bridge was completed, on time and under budget. Named in honor of his father, former Governor Mario M. Cuomo. Pattern President & CEO Jonathan Dickeh called the occasion, “a historic day for our region—today, New York is opening the new Tappan Zee Bridge actually come to fruition, while people say government can’t do anything, it’s incredible.”

Zee Bridge will open in 2018.

Don’t miss out! Pattern’s 2017 Housing Event is September 14

How can urban areas in the Hudson Valley spur development and create a mix of housing options for residents of all income levels, attracting investment while avoiding gentrification? Pattern has assembled a group of nationally and regionally recognized experts to discuss how to achieve development to answer that question at our annual housing forum. Click here for the pre-conference agenda and report.

OUR ORGANIZATION

Our organizations are based here as we are membership organizations; and $55 for elected and appointed officials of local governments. The fee for communities and officials within Pattern’s Urban Agenda Action is $10.

Why are you, and your business, based in the Hudson Valley?

I chose to return here after college because my first job was in high school, in retail. My parents moved here when I was 5 years old and have lived here all my life.

Our business is based in the Hudson Valley because we believe it is a great place to live and work. We have a great workforce and a supportive community. We are also able to access many markets and resources here.

Why are you, and your business, based in the Hudson Valley?

I love the Teddy Roosevelt quote, “It is not the critic who counts. It is not the man who points out how a thing can be done, but the man who asks why it is not done.” I believe the answer to this question is that our business is based here because it is the best place to do business and live.
